

July Rosary Intentions

July 1. Let us pray for our Bishop John Noonan as well as his intentions for the month of July.

July 2. Let us join our prayer with the intentions of all OLL parishioners.

July 3. Let us pray for our parish community, the Holy Catholic Church, our beloved Pope Francis, bishops, and all the clergy. That they will be given the wisdom and the courage to bring people back to Jesus Christ and His Church.

July 4. Let us pray for our country, the Executive Branch, the Supreme Court, the Congress, our armed and military forces, for our local government. We implore the Holy Spirit to enlighten and give them wisdom, mercy, love to rule our country in accordance with the will of God.

July 5. Let us pray for our brothers and sisters in Christ from all over the world, especially those who are suffering persecution. May they continue to keep their faith and hope in the promises of Christ. May God, in His mercy and compassion, give them comfort and consolation.

July 6. Let us pray for the permanent eradication of abortion, euthanasia and physician-assisted suicide. We pray for the repentance and conversion of those involved these crimes against human life.

July 7. Let us pray for an increase in vocations to priesthood and consecrated life, especially in places where they are most needed. May Our Lord Jesus send more workers into His vineyard.

July 8. Let us pray for priests, deacons and religious brothers and sisters, that by the grace of perseverance, they may find the joy of the Lord in the wonderful work they are doing for God's people.

July 9. Let us pray for the scientific community. May our good Lord give them the wisdom to create long-term solutions that will help us prepare for or prevent future outbreaks of disease.

July 10. Let us pray for orphans, street children, abandoned and abused children. May the Lord protect them with His angels and send more families who will love and care for them.

July 11. Let us pray for the preservation, conservation, and protection of our environment and the ecology. May the Lord bless and protect the men and women who are committed to this worthy cause.

July 12. Let us pray for our youth, hope for the future. May they be preserved from the evil influences of the godless society in which they live

July 13. Let us pray for Our Lady of Lourdes School and teachers, staff and faculty. May they find joy and fulfillment as they prepare for the return of students in the Fall. May the Lord bless them with His constant presence and protection.

July 14. Let us pray for the poor souls in purgatory, especially those of our loved ones. May the Lord raise them up to the eternal joy and peace of His heavenly kingdom.

July 15. Let us pray for our separated brothers and sisters who have left the Catholic Church. May the Holy Spirit enlighten them and open their eyes that they will return to the Eucharist and The Most Blessed Virgin Mary.

July 16. Let us pray for the promised and prophesied triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the imminent coming of the glorious reign of the Sacred Heart of Jesus over the entire world.

July 17. Let us pray for doctors, nurses, caregivers, and social workers. May the Lord bless them with His constant presence, love and protection.

July 18. Let us pray for the men and women who are committed to serve our parish. We especially remember the Knights of Columbus and the Council of Catholic Women. May they find the joy of the Lord in their work for the Church.

July 19. Let us pray for our Parish, Our Lady of Lourdes, and all the communities comprising our parish. We pray for our beloved parish priests and deacons, Fr. Octavio, Fr. David, Fr. Doug Dcn. Dan, Dcn. Arcelio, Dcn. Gary and all the priests who collaborate with us. May God bless them with wisdom and grace. May God also protect them from all harm, give them strength and good health.

July 20. Let us pray for the permanent eradication of terrorism, drugs, and crime, human trafficking, child abuse and pornography, cybersex and crimes against human dignity in our country and worldwide.

July 21. Let us pray for the sick and the terminally ill in our parish. May the Lord help, heal and accompany them at their time of need. May their faith be a source of strength for them and their caregivers.

July 22. Let us pray for refugees, migrants and immigrants who have left all they know to journey to a new land. May they find welcome, support and meaningful employment.

July 23. Let us pray for the homeless, and those who do not have shelter of their own. May the Lord bless them with protection from the elements, bless them to have sufficiency of food and clothing, and bless them with joy and peace of mind.

July 24. Let us pray for parents. May the Lord fill them with love, compassion, guidance, help, understanding, and wisdom. May the peace of God reign in their hearts and His love always encompass them.

July 25. Let us pray for all that have been incarcerated in prisons all over the world. May the light of God shine upon them so they may turn their lives around for the better.

July 26. Let us pray that those suffering from addiction may be helped in recovery and success in sobriety.

July 27. Let us pray for those who grieve the loss of a loved one. May they find comfort in Jesus Christ who walks with them.

July 28. Let us pray for married couples, especially for those who are struggling in their marriages. May they look to the Lord for guidance.

July 29. Let us pray for all those suffering mental illness. May the Lord lead them to competent and caring professionals. May He give them peace, comfort and the willingness to accept help.

July 30. Let us pray for those who do not believe in God. May the Lord touch their hearts and fill them with love.

July 31. Let us pray for those who have closed their heart to the love of God. May God show them His mercy and compassion.